Family Resource Network*

Working together

for children & families

Introduction

The Preston County Caring Council Family Resource Network (PCCCFRN), in conjunction with the WV Department of Health and Human Resources, is proud to present the tenth edition of this resource guide. This directory is published by the PCCCFRN, a non-profit agency with the mission to bring together the resources of agencies, civic organizations, businesses and individuals who strive to help Prestonians. We are a forum of caring people of Preston County who develops and shares information about existing and new services to benefit the county.

Acknowledgements

Funding for the tenth edition is provided by the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources, Partners in Prevention, PCCCFRN, and Preston County Starting Points Family Resource Center.

Information and referral

2-1-1 provides callers with information and referrals to human services for everyday needs and in times of crisis. For example 2-1-1 can offer access to the following types of services:

- Basic human needs resources: food banks, clothing closets, shelters, rent assistance, utility assistance
- Physical and mental health resources: health insurance programs, Medicaid and Medicare, crisis intervention, support groups, counseling
- Support for older Americans and persons with disabilities: adult day care, Meals-on-Wheels, home health care, transportation, homemaker services, respite care

One call gives you access to resources across your community. 2-1-1 is efficient, fast and easy to use. No more wrong numbers; no more wasted time trying to find the right resources. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 2-1-1 is always there for you!
